House File 357

February 19, 1943.
Judiciary 1.

By SHIMANEK and WELLINGTON.

A BILL FOR

An Act to amend section thirteen thousand three hundred fifty-five (13355), Code, 1939, relating to costs and fees in prosecutions for prison escapes and violations of parole.

Be It Enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Iowa:

- 1 Section 1. Section thirteen thousand three hundred
- 2 fifty-five (13355), Code, 1939, is amended by inserting a
- 3 comma (,) after the word "fees" at the end of line one (1) thereof
- 4 together with the following:
- 5 "including a fee to be fixed and taxed by the
- 6 court, not exceeding one hundred dollars
- 7 in favor of the county attorney of the county
- 8 where the prosecution takes place,".

EXPLANATION OF H. F. 357

Escape cases from the state reformatory and state penitentiary are all prosecuted in the county in which the institution is located that the man escaped from, or from which he had been released on parole. This means that the county attorneys from Fort Madison and Anamosa have the duty of prosecuting all of these additional cases, which average at least one hundred a year, and it is felt they should have some additional compensation for this additional work.
